"I want to hate these muggers and murderers. They should be forced to suffer and, when they kill, they should be executed for their crimes."

Donald TRUMP. May 1st, 1989
The New York Times

"I thought it was appropriate that Timothy McVeigh received the death penalty for blowing up the Federal Building in Oklahoma City, killing 168 people, including 19 children"

Hillary CLINTON. February 4th, 2016
MSNBC television debate

JOURNALIST: Four people have been charged, they're going to go in front of a judge later today. You say the only punishment adequate for the four who were accused, at least the two with capital murder, is what?

DONALD TRUMP: Well it's the death penalty. We have people who are, these two animals shot the cops and these were two wonderful young cops and you know you don't see rioting when the cops get shot. You don't see anything. There won't be protests, there won't be anything. You won't even hear about it in two days. It will be old news and that will be it, except for their families and their friends it will be forgotten. The death penalty. It should be brought back and it should be brought back strong.

1. Introduce the documents.
2. Who is Donald Trump?
3. Explain his view on the death penalty.

Now these two people are just gunned down by these two thugs, and I will say thugs, and they should get the death penalty absolutely. And you know what, I don't know they say it's not a deterrent well you know what maybe it's not a deterrent but these two will not do anymore killing that's for sure.
